ROLE BOUNDARY — read before every shoot. Talyx is the agency. We do not own stock, hold documents, inspect, grade, price or sell. Nev's verbs are ASK · BRING · SHOW YOU WHAT TO ASK — never OWN, INSPECT, PRICE or SELL. Any video involving documents or inspection must have the dealer on camera doing the showing. Identity line, once per video: "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni."

What I found this week

1. Auction-report explainers are the live format. Several creators are building whole videos around the auction sheet instead of the car. One posted the sheet as a still with tap-through callout boxes.
Nasrom Premium "PENTING KE? AUCTION REPORT?" — 1,468 likes · scrut auto "Auction Report Guide" · TikTok, seen 19 Ogos 2026

2. Recond vs baru is the strongest comment driver, on both platforms.
Aunty Nora Primewheels — 4,505 likes TikTok · same framing 67K views YouTube · seen 19 Ogos 2026

3. Budget-bracket framing sorts the audience. "Kalau gaji korang RM5000..." and Top-5 listicles invite self-identification in comments.
CARZON — 5,372 likes · Aunty Nora "Top 5 Kereta Recond Paling Laku" — posted 4 days ago · TikTok

4. The best stock post in the whole scan was a poster, not a walkaround. Price and warranty burned into frame 1.
G-Mart Group — Vellfire 2.5 ZG recond, 18.2K likes, highest in the scan · TikTok
- Market context: Malaysian used-car market described as stable for 2026, ~850k–900k units. [judgement] — not obviously a video yet; parked for a slower week.

Auction sheet — saya minta dealer baca depan korang

Hook #4 Everything on the table

Twist Music cut to silence

CTA Save

Style Transparency

ROLE BOUNDARY. Nev does not touch the auction sheet at any point. The dealer holds it, points at it, explains it. If Nev ends up holding the document, the take is unusable — reshoot.

What this video has to do. Make one buyer finally understand what an auction sheet says — from the dealer's mouth, with Nev sitting where the viewer would sit. Success is a save and a WhatsApp, not a like.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Ask the dealer the day before: will he be filmed reading the sheet, and can we show it? Yes to both or no shoot.
- Ask him to pick one unit where the sheet is honest and readable — including repair marks. A sheet with a repair on it is better content than a perfect one.
- Confirm mileage on the sheet matches the meter before rolling. If they don't match, pick another unit — do not film it and explain the gap.
- Price + anggaran monthly in writing. Exact spelling of his business name.
- Cover any previous-owner name or personal data on the sheet.
- Table by a window, no glare. Test one frame before calling the dealer over.

GEAR & SETUP

- Osmo Pocket 3, 9:16, 4K/30
- Wireless mic on the dealer — he talks most in this one
- Small tripod for the locked-off table shots
- A card to cover personal data
- Cloth for the meter glass — fingerprints read badly in CU

SHOT-BY-SHOT

SHOT 1 0:00 – 0:03 The document lands

FRAMING	ECU, top-down. Sheet fills the frame edge to edge. Dealer's hands only — no faces, no car.
CAMERA MOVE	Locked off, top-down. Osmo on a tripod at the table edge pointing straight down. Zero movement — do not let the gimbal re-level mid-shot.
ACTION	Dealer slides the sheet flat into frame, squares it with both hands, lifts hands away. One smooth slide — not a drop.
EXPRESSION	No faces. The hands carry it: unhurried, careful, like the document matters.
AUDIO	SILENCE. No music. Room tone only — you want the paper sound.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	AUCTION SHEET small, top-left, white, no box, no animation.
EDIT NOTE	Hard in on the first frame of the slide. No fade up.

SHOT 2

0:03 — 0:10 Nev sits and admits it

FRAMING

MS, both men in frame, sheet on the table between them. Slight high angle so the sheet stays readable.

CAMERA MOVE

Static, chest height. If you must move, one very slow 10cm push — no more.

ACTION

Nev sits beside the dealer, taps the sheet once with a knuckle, leaves his hand off it.

EXPRESSION

Open, slightly amused at himself. He is admitting he can't read this. Not presenting — confessing.

DIALOGUE

NEV LOCKED

"Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni."

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Dan jujur — saya sendiri tak berapa pandai baca benda ni. Jadi saya minta bos dia baca depan korang."

AUDIO

Music fades in soft under the second line. Low, no beat yet.

EDIT NOTE

Cut on the knuckle tap — make sure he does it clearly.

FRAMING

OTS over Nev's shoulder, down onto the sheet and the dealer's hand.

CAMERA MOVE

Handheld, gentle. Push in 15–20cm, timed to land as the dealer's finger reaches the grade box. Stop moving once it lands.

ACTION

Nev asks. Dealer puts his finger on the grade box and holds it there while explaining.

EXPRESSION

Nev: eyebrows up, genuinely asking, looking at the sheet not the lens. Dealer: relaxed, factual — teaching, not defending.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Okay — grade ni. Maksud apa sebenarnya?"

DEALER SAY IT YOUR WAY

His own words. Do not feed him a line. Rambling is fine, you will trim it.

AUDIO

Music low. Do not let it rise here.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

SOALAN 1 — GRADE lower third at y=0.72. Never centre.

EDIT NOTE

Do not cut while his finger is on the box. The finger staying put is what makes it feel honest.

FRAMING

CU on the damage diagram, then tilt up to the dealer's face as he answers.

CAMERA MOVE

One slow tilt up. One move only — no whip, no re-frame halfway. Fluff it and roll again rather than fixing in the edit.

ACTION

Dealer traces the diagram with his finger, then looks up as he explains the marks.

EXPRESSION

Dealer neutral and factual. Nev off-camera listening — his 'mm', 'ah okay' are good, keep them, they make it a conversation.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Bahagian mana yang ada repair? Tunjuk saya."

DEALER SAY IT YOUR WAY

His explanation. If the answer is none, he says none — do not manufacture a defect.

AUDIO

Music steady.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

SOALAN 2 — REPAIR lower third.

EDIT NOTE

Cut out on the tilt landing, not after he finishes. Trim the tail.

FRAMING

Follow both men walking to the car, then hard cut to CU on the odometer.

CAMERA MOVE

Handheld follow at walking pace, gimbal on, FPV off, behind and slightly to the side. Then lock off completely for the meter CU — that shot must not move at all.

ACTION

Dealer opens the driver door, ignition to accessory, cluster lights up. He holds the sheet in his other hand, in frame beside the meter.

EXPRESSION

Nev leans in, reads the meter, looks across at the sheet, then says nothing for a beat. Let the silence sit. Do not fill it.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Mileage kat sini — sama tak dengan meter dia?"

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Then nothing. Two full seconds of not talking. Hardest direction of the week, and the most important.

AUDIO

MUSIC CUTS DEAD on the exact frame the cluster lights. Hard cut, never fade. Room tone only ~3s. This is the page signature — if it fades, it failed.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

Nothing during the silence. No caption, no overlay. Let the meter be the only thing on screen.

EDIT NOTE

Frame-exact cut. Music stops on the first lit frame, not one frame after.

FRAMING	MS, Nev beside the car, dealer visible but soft behind.
CAMERA MOVE	Static. Let the graphics do the work.
ACTION	Price card animates in beside Nev.
EXPRESSION	Calm, matter-of-fact. Information, not a pitch. No smile-selling.
DIALOGUE	NEV LOCKED "Harga dia RM____. Anggaran bulanan RM____." NEV LOCKED "Unit ni dari dealer partner kami, [name]."
AUDIO	Music back in but lower than before the silence — never louder. The silence stays the peak.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	RM____ · anggaran RM____/bln · Dealer partner: [name] — all three.
EDIT NOTE	Ten seconds is the cap. Do not linger.

FRAMING

MCU on Nev, car soft behind.

CAMERA MOVE

Very slight push in — 10cm across the whole shot.

ACTION

Nev talks straight to lens for the first time in the video.

EXPRESSION

Direct, warm, unhurried. He is doing the viewer a favour, not asking for one.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Simpan video ni dulu sebelum korang pergi tengok kereta.
Nanti korang tahu nak tanya apa."

NEV LOCKED

"Tanya dulu, baru beli." [PROPOSED]

AUDIO

Music out clean on the last word. No tail.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

No CTA card — the line carries it.

EDIT NOTE

Cut to black on the last syllable. Do not hold on his face.

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- Auction-report explainers are this week's live format (Nasrom Premium, 1,468 likes)
- Transparency is shown by the dealer, never claimed by us — boundary stays clean, trust still lands
- Save CTA suits education; saves are the strongest organic distribution signal

Lines that must land exactly.

- "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni." — once, SHOT 2
- "Harga dia RM____. Anggaran bulanan RM____." — anggaran said aloud AND on screen
- "Unit ni dari dealer partner kami, [name]."
- "Tanya dulu, baru beli." [PROPOSED — confirm]

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Stock Drop — poster carousel

Hook #1 Price shock

CTA Choose

Style Stock

Pinned every Tuesday

ROLE BOUNDARY. Every card says Dealer partner: [name]. Caption reads “dari dealer partner kami” — never “stock kami”. Nev does not appear in this post at all.

What this video has to do. Two jobs. Give the page a live, dated shop window in its highest-attention slot. And harvest comments cheaply — 'comment nombor' is the lowest-effort comment ask we have, and comments are the weakest number on the dashboard.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Final unit list from the dealer Monday night. Anything sold before Tuesday comes off — never post a sold unit.
- Per unit, in writing: model, year, mileage, grade, price, anggaran monthly. Off his documents, not memory.
- Ask which units he actually wants pushed. Do not guess.
- Shoot all 6 in one session at the same time of day — mixed light makes the set look scraped together.
- No 'last unit' unless it is literally the last unit.

GEAR & SETUP

- Osmo Pocket 3 or phone — stills, highest resolution
- Golden hour or full shade. Midday sun on a windscreen kills it
- Same angle every car: front 3/4, camera at headlight height
- Wipe the plate area
- Price list on paper so you can label files as you shoot

CARD 1 COVER The poster — number before car

FRAMING	The price is the subject . Car cropped hard behind it, static, slightly darkened. A poster, not a photograph.
CAMERA MOVE	Front 3/4, camera at headlight height , ~2.5m from the car, car occupying the bottom two-thirds. Leave the top third clean for type. Do not shoot from standing eye level — it makes the car look small.
ACTION	No people. No motion. Car parked square, wheels straight.
EXPRESSION	Tone of the card: confident and blunt. The number does the talking — no exclamation marks, no starbursts, no 'WOW'.
AUDIO	No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	STOCK DROP · 25 OGOS 2026 top. Then the headline price in the largest type on the card — bigger than the model name. anggaran RM ___/bln under it, smaller. Dealer partner: [name] at the base.
EDIT NOTE	This is the change from previous weeks. Build it like a poster, not a photo.

FRAMING

Identical treatment on every card: front 3/4, headlight height, same crop, same type placement. The eye should feel no jolt swiping between them.

CAMERA MOVE

Same position, same height, same distance for all four. Move the car, not the camera, if the lot allows. Consistency is what makes the set look professional rather than assembled.

ACTION

No people in frame. Wheels straight on every car.

EXPRESSION

Tone: catalogue-neutral. No angles that flatter or hide — every unit gets the same honest treatment. That evenness is the transparency signal.

AUDIO

No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

Per card: number badge 1–6 top-left · model · year · mileage · grade · RM ____ · anggaran RM ____/bln · Dealer partner: [name]. Every figure off the dealer's documents.

EDIT NOTE

Number the cards visibly — the whole CTA depends on people being able to say 'nombor 3'.

CARD 6

CTA CARD Where to go next

FRAMING

Plain card, brand colour, no car. Full-bleed flat colour, type centred.

CAMERA MOVE

No camera — this card is built in the design tool, not photographed. 1080×1350 canvas, same dimensions as the photo cards so the carousel does not jump.

ACTION

Static graphic.

EXPRESSION

Tone: plain and functional. This is a doorway, not a sales pitch — the persuading already happened on cards 1–5.

AUDIO

No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

 WhatsApp +60 16-879 8757 large, plus a scannable QR to the same number. Underneath: “Comment nombor kereta yang korang nak.”

EDIT NOTE

Test the QR on a real phone before posting. A dead QR on a pinned post sits there all week.

CAPTION — READY TO PASTE

6 unit dari dealer partner kami minggu ni.
Yang mana satu korang nak kami pergi tengok dulu? Comment nombor dia
Dealer partner: [name]

WhatsApp +60 16-879 8757

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- The highest-engagement stock post in this week's scan was a poster with price + warranty on frame 1 (G-Mart Group, 18.2K likes) — it beat every walkaround
- 'Comment nombor' is the cheapest comment engine we have; comments are the weakest KPI (4 → target 40)
- Pinned Tuesday keeps live inventory in the page's highest-attention slot

Lines that must land exactly.

- Caption reads “dari dealer partner kami” — never “stock kami”, never “kereta kami”
- Dealer partner: [name] on every card and in the caption
- The word anggaran on every monthly figure
- No sold units. No “last unit!” unless literally true

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Export. Carousel 4:5 or 1:1, consistent across all six. Pin Tuesday morning — unpin last week's first. Reply to every comment within the hour; an unanswered 'comment nombor' post kills the mechanic for next week.

Dua benda ni — jalan Sabah baru korang faham

Hook #3 Bold claim

Twist Good-news-then-flaw

CTA Question

Style Industry value

ROLE BOUNDARY. Nev comments on how the car behaves on roads he actually drives — that is his real experience and it is allowed. He is not grading, certifying or pricing. The flaw at 42s must be one the dealer already disclosed, quoted as the dealer's disclosure — never Nev's own finding.

What this video has to do. Repeat the recipe that produced the fastest video this page has ever had (LX600, 526 views in 13 hours): two real features tied to real Sabah roads, no showroom talk. The flaw at 42s is what stops it being an advert.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Ask the dealer which two features matter most on Sabah roads — then verify yourself before filming.
- Ask him: “Ada apa-apa yang saya patut sebut yang tak sempurna?” Whatever he says is your 42s beat. Write it in his words.
- Written permission to take the unit on the road. Confirm insurance covers it.
- Scout the road first. You need one stretch with a real reason — broken tarmac, a steep kampung climb, heavy rain.
- Price + anggaran in writing, dealer business name spelling.

GEAR & SETUP

- Osmo Pocket 3 — window or chest mount for driving beats
- Wireless mic on Nev; road noise eats the built-in mic
- Shoot road beats first while light holds
- If it rains, drop everything and shoot. Rain on a Sabah road is worth more than blue sky

SHOT-BY-SHOT

SHOT 1

0:00 – 0:03 Bold claim over the feature working

FRAMING	The feature in use, mid-motion, on a real road . Not the badge, not the showroom, not a static car.
CAMERA MOVE	Handheld or mounted, already moving when the shot starts . No settle, no establishing shot.
ACTION	Whatever the feature does, it is doing it — suspension absorbing, camera view active, 4WD engaging.
EXPRESSION	Voice only. Confident, flat, no hype in the delivery — the claim is strong enough on its own.
DIALOGUE	NEV VO SAY IT YOUR WAY "Feature ni bukan luxury. Kat jalan Sabah, ini keperluan."
AUDIO	Music in from frame 1, mid-energy. Road noise underneath, not ducked out .
ON-SCREEN TEXT	Claim burned in, large, top third. Frame 1 must already have text on it .
EDIT NOTE	No intro, no logo, no 'hi guys' . The first frame is already the argument.

SHOT 2

0:03 – 0:08 Identity, said once

FRAMING	MCU Nev driving, or standing beside the car on the road.
CAMERA MOVE	Static or very slow drift.
ACTION	One line, then straight back to the road.
EXPRESSION	Casual. Thrown away, not announced . It is a disclosure, not a segment.
DIALOGUE	NEV LOCKED "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni."
AUDIO	Music continues.
EDIT NOTE	Keep under five seconds.

SHOT 3

0:08 — 0:25 Feature 1, on the road

FRAMING

Mix of three: one wide of the car on the road, one CU of the feature, one of Nev reacting.

CAMERA MOVE

Three angles, cut between them. Keep each angle at least 3 seconds — do not chop.

ACTION

Nev demonstrates the feature doing its job on the specific road problem.

EXPRESSION

Reacting genuinely to the road, not performing. If the road throws the car, let that read on his face.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Name the road problem first, the feature second. "Jalan ni... korang tengok apa jadi." Then what the feature does about it.

AUDIO

Music steady. Let one real road sound through — a bump, the engine loading.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

Feature name, lower third y=0.72.

EDIT NOTE

Whole beats. Do not cut inside a demonstration to save two seconds.

SHOT 4

0:25 — 0:42 Feature 2, same treatment

FRAMING

Same three-angle structure so it reads as a pair with SHOT 3.

CAMERA MOVE

Match the coverage of SHOT 3 deliberately — same angles, same distances.

ACTION

Second feature, second road problem.

EXPRESSION

Same register. Do not escalate the energy — the flaw is coming and it needs somewhere to land.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Same shape as feature 1: the road problem, then what the feature does about it.

AUDIO

Music steady.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

Feature name, lower third.

EDIT NOTE

Cut out a beat early. You want a small hole before the turn.

FRAMING

MCU Nev, car stopped, engine off if possible.

CAMERA MOVE

Locked off. No movement at all. The stillness is the signal that the tone changed.

ACTION

Nev stops driving, stops selling, and says the one thing that is not perfect.

EXPRESSION

Calm. Not apologetic, not dramatic. He is not confessing a sin, he is completing the picture. Slower delivery than everything before it.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Tapi satu benda saya tak berapa suka —" then the dealer's disclosed flaw, in plain words.

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Attribute it: "Ni dealer sendiri bagitau." Never present it as something you discovered.

AUDIO

Music drops down, not out. This is not the music-cut video — that is Isnin.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

No text. Spoken only.

EDIT NOTE

Hold one extra second after he finishes. The pause is the point.

SHOT 6

0:50 — 0:56 Price, credited

FRAMING MS, car and Nev.

CAMERA MOVE Static.

ACTION Price card in.

EXPRESSION Matter-of-fact. No lift in the voice.

DIALOGUE

NEV LOCKED

"RM____, anggaran RM____ sebulan. Dari dealer partner kami, [name]."

AUDIO Music back up slightly.

ON-SCREEN TEXT RM ____ · anggaran RM ____/bln · Dealer partner: [name]

EDIT NOTE Six seconds, no more.

SHOT 7

0:56 — 1:00 Question CTA + sign-off

FRAMING MCU Nev to lens.

CAMERA MOVE Slight push in.

ACTION Hands the question over.

EXPRESSION Genuinely curious. He wants the answer, he is not fishing for engagement.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Korang rasa dua benda ni berbaloi tak untuk jalan kita?"

NEV LOCKED

"Tanya dulu, baru beli." [PROPOSED]

EXPERIMENT

Hook #5 Cold sound

Twist Expectation flip

CTA Next-episode

Ported from food / fitness

ROLE BOUNDARY. The safest video of the week on the boundary, and that is part of why it was chosen. Nev films his own working day as an agency person — driving to dealers and asking questions. He never opens a bonnet, never inspects, never quotes a price himself. Every car shown belongs to a named dealer.

What this video has to do. Test whether process content works on this page. The format is lifted wholesale from the food/fitness “what I eat in a day” timestamp genre — nothing in Malaysian recond content is doing it. The payoff is people seeing the work of asking, which is the only thing Talyx actually sells.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Pick a day you are genuinely visiting two or more dealers. Do not stage it — staged process content reads false immediately.
- Tell each dealer beforehand you will film a short segment at his lot. Get a yes.
- You need one honest verdict at the end. Decide it after the day, not before.
- Shoot far more than you need. This format is built in the edit, not on the day.
- Note real times as you go. If you arrive at 9:40, the card says 9:40.

GEAR & SETUP

- Osmo Pocket 3 — chest or dash mount for driving, handheld for the lots
- Mic on Nev all day — you will not know in advance which line matters
- Charge everything the night before. Nine-hour shoot on one battery budget
- Shoot the 7am start even if you feel silly. The cold engine sound is the hook and cannot be recreated at noon

SHOT-BY-SHOT

SHOT 1 0:00 – 0:03 Cold sound — key, engine, timestamp

FRAMING	CU on the key turning, or the start button and the cluster waking up. Tight, no context.
CAMERA MOVE	Locked off. Phone or Osmo braced. No hand shake — the stillness makes the sound the subject.
ACTION	Key turns. Engine catches. That is the entire shot.
EXPRESSION	No face. No voice. Nothing.
AUDIO	NO MUSIC. Real engine sound only, recorded properly. This is the hook — weak audio means no opening.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	7:10 PAGI plain, small, one corner. No animation.
EDIT NOTE	Hard in. The very first frame has engine sound on it.

SHOT 2 0:03 – 0:12 Out of KK, still no music

FRAMING	Driving plates: windscreen view, a mirror, Nev's hands on the wheel. Short cuts, 2–3s each.
CAMERA MOVE	Mounted, static within each shot. Let the world move, not the camera.
ACTION	Driving out. Nothing happens. That is correct.
EXPRESSION	Nev does not speak yet. He is just awake and driving.
AUDIO	Still no music. Road, indicator, engine. Music enters at 0:12, not before.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	Timestamps keep stacking as the drive continues.
EDIT NOTE	Resist adding music early. The first twelve seconds being real sound is what separates this from every other car reel.

SHOT 3

0:12 – 0:25 Dealer pertama

9:05 PAGI – DEALER PERTAMA

Dealer partner: [name]

HANDHELD FOLLOW

FRAMING

Handheld, walking in. One unit shown, dealer beside it.

CAMERA MOVE

Follow at walking pace. Enter the lot with the camera already rolling — do not cut to an establishing shot.

ACTION

Nev greets, asks one question, dealer answers, they look at one car. Thirteen seconds, no more.

EXPRESSION

Working, not presenting. Slightly transactional. This is his job, not a show.

DIALOGUE

NEV

SAY IT YOUR WAY

One real question — whatever you actually asked that morning. Do not script it in advance.

DEALER

SAY IT YOUR WAY

His answer, his words.

AUDIO

Music enters here, mid-tempo, under the dialogue.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

9:05 PAGI – DEALER PERTAMA · Dealer partner:
[name]

EDIT NOTE

Cut hard out while he is still talking. The abruptness is the format.

SHOT 4

0:25 — 0:38 Dealer kedua — faster

12:30 — DEALER KEDUA

FRAMING

Same structure, deliberately tighter.

CAMERA MOVE

Same handheld language as SHOT 3.

ACTION

Second lot, second question, second car. Cut faster than the first — the day is accelerating.

EXPRESSION

Slightly more worn than the morning. Let that show; it is the honesty of the format.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Second real question.

DEALER SAY IT YOUR WAY

His answer.

AUDIO

Music continues.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

12:30 TENGAHARI — DEALER KEDUA · Dealer partner:
[name]

EDIT NOTE

Shorter than SHOT 3 by 2–3 seconds. The escalation keeps people watching.

SHOT 5

0:38 — 0:48 Balik — the expectation flip

FRAMING

MCU Nev in the driver's seat, parked, engine off, late light.

CAMERA MOVE

Static, locked. First time all video the camera is properly still on his face.

ACTION

He turns to camera and reframes what the video was about.

EXPRESSION

Tired and honest. This is the emotional beat of the week. Not a performance — end of a real day.

DIALOGUE

NEV LOCKED

"Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni."

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Then the flip — it looked like a stock tour, but the point is the asking. "Kerja kami bukan jual — kerja kami tanya. Sebab korang tak sempat pergi tanya sendiri."

AUDIO

Music drops right down. Nearly out.

EDIT NOTE

The whole experiment rests on this shot. If it does not feel real, the format failed and next week says so.

SHOT 6

0:48 — 0:54 The honest count

FRAMING

Same setup, continuing.

CAMERA MOVE

Static.

ACTION

He gives the day's tally and his verdict.

EXPRESSION

Flat, unimpressed where warranted. If only one was worth it, sound like it.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Hari ni saya tengok __ buah. Satu je saya rasa berbaloi."

AUDIO

Music low.

EDIT NOTE

Do not soften this. A generous verdict every week makes the verdict worthless.

SHOT 7

0:54 — 1:00 Next-episode CTA + sign-off

FRAMING

Same.

CAMERA MOVE

Slight push in.

ACTION

Sets up tomorrow.

EXPRESSION

Warmer. A small lift at the end of a tired day.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Esok kami tunjuk yang satu tu. Follow supaya tak terlepas."

NEV LOCKED

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- This is the Experiment. Format ported from outside the car niche — the food/fitness timestamped day-in-the-life. Nothing local in record content is doing it
- Displaces the standalone education slot — Isnin's auction sheet already carries the teaching load, so education was the softest of the four midweek slots
- Process content: the audience sees the work, not just the destination. The only format this week that is about the agency without ever claiming to be the dealer
- If it flops, next week's plan says so by name and tries a different outside-niche format

Lines that must land exactly.

- "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni." — once, SHOT 5
- Every dealer visited is named on screen at their segment
- Timestamps are the real times. Do not invent a schedule
- Nev quotes no price in this video. Any price appears on a card, credited to the dealer
- The follow-up promised in SHOT 7 must actually be posted Friday or Saturday

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Export. Vertical 9:16, ~60s. Captions y=0.72. Measure this one separately — 3-sec view rate and comments against the week's other six. Record the result in PLAYBOOK.md next week; if it flopped, say so by name.

Recond vs baru — tapi kira ikut Sabah

Hook #7 Split screen

Twist Comparison flip

CTA Question

Style Comparison · comment bait

ROLE BOUNDARY. Comparing two ownership routes is commentary and is fine. What is not fine: implying we can supply either, or that we priced them. The recond price is attributed to the dealer partner; the new price to the manufacturer's official list.

What this video has to do. Drive comments — the single most important KPI on this page (4 in 28 days, target 40). Comparison is the proven mechanic. The whole video is engineered so Nev never gives the answer, because the moment he does, the comment disappears.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Pick a model the dealer partner actually has in stock. The comparison must be real and shoppable.
- Get the official new-car price from the manufacturer's own site, screenshot it, use that figure. Do not estimate.
- Decide your flip in advance: the one Sabah-specific factor where the obvious winner loses. Service centre distance, parts wait, or KK resale — pick one, not three.
- Verify the flip. If you cannot point at something real, drop it and pick another factor.
- Do not shoot this as an argument for recond. If it reads as an advert for our own inventory, it will not generate debate.

GEAR & SETUP

- Osmo Pocket 3 for both cars; the split screen is built in the edit
- Shoot both sides in similar light or the comparison looks rigged
- Mic on Nev
- The manufacturer price screenshot, as an on-screen source card

SHOT-BY-SHOT

SHOT 1

0:00 – 0:03 Split screen, both prices already up

FRAMING	Hard vertical split. Recond left, baru right. Both prices burned in from frame 1.
CAMERA MOVE	Two static plates. No movement on either side.
ACTION	Nothing moves. The information is the hook.
EXPRESSION	Voice only. Neutral — you are stating a fact, not teasing.
DIALOGUE	NEV VO SAY IT YOUR WAY "Sama model. Beza RM____. Korang pilih mana?"
AUDIO	Music in from frame 1, mid-energy.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	Both prices, large. Question across the middle. No build-up, no reveal.
EDIT NOTE	Frame 1 must contain the whole premise. If a viewer leaves at 2 seconds they should still know what the video is.

SHOT 2

0:03 – 0:08 Identity

FRAMING	MCU Nev between the two cars if possible, or against a neutral wall.
CAMERA MOVE	Static.
ACTION	One line.
EXPRESSION	Thrown away. Under five seconds.
DIALOGUE	NEV LOCKED "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni."
AUDIO	Music continues.
EDIT NOTE	Under five seconds.

STATIC

1x move per point

FRAMING Left-side plate goes full frame. Interior, mileage, grade — the actual unit.

CAMERA MOVE Slow handheld moves, one per point. Nothing fast.

ACTION Nev walks through what the money buys on this side.

EXPRESSION Even-handed. Do not sell. He is a referee, not an advocate.

DIALOGUE
NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY
What you get for the money. Facts, no adjectives.

NEV LOCKED
"Unit ni dari dealer partner kami, [name]."

AUDIO Music steady.

ON-SCREEN TEXT RECOND · RM_____ · anggaran RM____/bln · Dealer partner: [name]

EDIT NOTE Give both sides the same screen time. Count it.

FRAMING

Right-side plate full frame. Same coverage as side A.

CAMERA MOVE

Match SHOT 3 exactly — same moves, same pacing, same distances.

ACTION

What the money buys on this side. Warranty, zero mileage, full spec.

EXPRESSION

Same evenness. If anything be slightly more generous here — it disarms the accusation of bias.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

What you get. Same structure as side A.

AUDIO

Music steady.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

BARU · RM plus a small source card: “harga rasmi [manufacturer]”

EDIT NOTE

Match the cut rhythm of SHOT 3. Any asymmetry reads as an agenda.

SHOT 5

0:42 — 0:52 The flip

FRAMING

MCU Nev, both cars visible behind him if the lot allows.

CAMERA MOVE

Locked off. Stillness marks the turn — same language as Rabu's flaw beat.

ACTION

He names the one Sabah-specific factor that upends the obvious answer.

EXPRESSION

Slower. This is the thought the viewer has not had yet — give them time to have it.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

The one factor: service centre distance, parts wait, or KK resale. Plainly, with the real number or fact behind it.

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY*Do not resolve it. State it and stop.

AUDIO

ON-SCREEN TEXT

The factor, one line, lower third.

EDIT NOTE

Hold a beat after he stops talking. The silence is where the comment gets written.

SHOT 6

0:52 — 0:58 No verdict

FRAMING

MCU Nev to lens.

ACTION

He explicitly refuses to answer.

EXPRESSION

Slight smile. He knows he is handing them a fight.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

"Saya tak bagi jawapan. Sebab jawapan dia bergantung kat korang."

AUDIO

Music steady.

EDIT NOTE

This shot is the entire mechanic. If Nev states a preference anywhere in this video, cut it out.

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- Strongest cross-platform format found this week: Aunty Nora Primewheels 4,505 likes on TikTok, same framing at 67K views on YouTube
- Comparison questions are the page's proven comment driver — comments are the weakest number (4 → target 40)
- Withholding the verdict is the mechanic. The moment Nev answers, the comment disappears

Lines that must land exactly.

- "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni." — once, SHOT 2
- New-car price attributed on screen as the manufacturer's official price
- Recond price attributed to Dealer partner: [name]
- Nev states no preference anywhere. If a preference is on the tape, cut it
- No comparison against another dealer, shop or seller. Recond vs new — never us vs them

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Export. Vertical 9:16, ~65s. Captions $y=0.72$. Post Friday afternoon, then sit on the comments — this is the one video where reply speed changes the outcome.

Showroom day dengan dealer partner

Hook #8 Mid-action start

CTA Connect

Style Behind the scenes

ROLE BOUNDARY. The dealer hosts. Nev asks. The dealer walks his own row, opens his own cars, quotes his own prices. When a viewer asks a price, Nev turns to the dealer and asks him to say it out loud. Nev never opens a bonnet, never assesses condition, never says “kami dah check”.

What this video has to do. Two things money cannot buy. A Live pushes a notification to all 584 followers — the cheapest reach on the page. And event-style posts are historically the only thing that has produced real comments here. It is also a footage farm: two or three clips become next week’s reels.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Confirm the slot with the dealer at least two days ahead, and confirm he is comfortable being live and unedited.
- Agree which units are fair game. Nothing sold, nothing under negotiation.
- Agree the boundary out loud with him: he says the prices, he answers condition questions. Tell him Nev will keep turning to him — by design, not distrust.
- Post a reminder to the page 2 hours before, and again 15 minutes before.
- Someone on a second phone watching comments to feed Nev questions. Doing both alone is why most dealer Lives die.
- Check the showroom wifi. Test-stream 60 seconds first.

GEAR & SETUP

- Phone on a gimbal for the Live · Osmo Pocket 3 as B-camera capturing clean footage for next week
- Record locally as well as streaming. Facebook’s Live download is lower quality
- Wireless mic on the dealer, second on Nev. A showroom is loud and echoey
- Power bank
- Five fallback questions written down for when comments go quiet — they will, around minute 8

OPEN

0:00 — 0:10 Mid-answer — no intro

FRAMING	Handheld, already walking, dealer in frame mid-sentence .
CAMERA MOVE	Walking pace, gimbal on. The stream begins with movement already happening.
ACTION	Start the Live while the dealer is already answering something . No greeting, no logo, no 'okay we're live'.
EXPRESSION	Both men mid-conversation. Natural, slightly unaware of the camera.
DIALOGUE	NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY "...jadi yang ni baru masuk minggu lepas?" DEALER SAY IT YOUR WAY His answer, already running.
AUDIO	Room sound. No music on a Live.
EDIT NOTE	For the BTS reel version this is your 0–3s hook. Cut in on the question, not before.

MIN 1

~0:30 — 1:30 Identity, once, early

FRAMING

MCU Nev to camera, dealer beside him.

ACTION

Nev frames what this is in one sentence, hands straight back to the dealer.

----->
HANDHELD FOLLOW

FRAMING

Walking coverage of the row, stopping at each unit. Open doors, interiors, meters.

CAMERA MOVE

Keep moving between units, hold steady while the dealer talks. Do not orbit cars while someone is speaking.

ACTION

Nev reads comments aloud and puts them to the dealer. The dealer answers, opens the car, shows what is asked for.

EXPRESSION

Nev is the buyer's proxy — a bit sceptical, always polite. When an answer is vague, ask again: "Maksud dia macam mana?" That is the value of the format.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Reads the commenter's name and question out loud. Naming people keeps others typing.

DEALER SAY IT YOUR WAY

Answers — including prices. He says the number, not Nev.

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

If a price comes up: "Boleh bos bagitau harga dia?" Turn to him every time.

AUDIO

Room sound. Keep the dealer's mic hot.

EDIT NOTE

Mark timecodes as you go for anything worth clipping — a good answer, a real defect shown, a funny moment.

QUIET

5 fallback questions
often the best clips of the Live

STATIC

FRAMING

CAMERA MOVE

Same.

ACTION

Go to the fallback questions. Do not let dead air run.

EXPRESSION

Unbothered. Silence on a Live is only awkward if you act like it is.

DIALOGUE

NEV SAY IT YOUR WAY

Fallback bank: what came in this week · the hardest question buyers ask you · which unit has been here longest and why · what you check before taking a car in · what you'd tell someone buying their first record.

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- Live pushes a notification to all 584 followers — the cheapest reach available on the page
- Event-style posts historically produced the only real comments this page has had
- Putting the dealer on camera is the role boundary working for us: he has the answers, Nev has the questions

Lines that must land exactly.

- "Kami bantu dealer promote kereta ni." — once, in the first two minutes
- Nev never states a price. Every price question goes to the dealer, out loud, on stream
- The dealer is thanked by name at the close
- No sold or under-negotiation unit appears
- No comparison to any other dealer, shop or salesman — not even as a joke

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Export. Stream at the highest quality the wifi holds. Keep the local recording — the Facebook download is worse. Within 24 hours pull 2–3 clips for next week and note timecodes in PLAYBOOK.md.

Jumpa owner baru minggu ni

Hook #2 Unanswered question

CTA Question · poll

Style Emotional · social proof

ROLE BOUNDARY. The dealer sold the car. We introduced the buyer. Fixed wording: “__ unit dari dealer partner kami jumpa owner baru” and “Kami yang arrange, dealer yang serah kunci.” Never “kami jual”, never a sales figure presented as ours.

What this video has to do. Show the page has momentum after a quiet month, and harvest next week's direction from the audience instead of guessing. The poll result feeds straight into next Sunday's plan.

BEFORE YOU SHOOT

- Ask the dealer which units actually found owners this week and get permission to show each.
- Ask separately about the buyers: no faces, no names, no plates unless the buyer explicitly said yes. When in doubt, shoot the car alone.
- If nothing sold this week, do not invent it. Run the poll alone with a line about a quiet week — honesty costs nothing and protects everything.
- Write the poll options before building the cards. Three maximum.

GEAR & SETUP

- Whatever you already shot this week — handovers, cars leaving the lot, keys changing hands
- If you have nothing, shoot the empty space where the car was. That reads better than a stock graphic
- Late light, no heavy grading. Warm is the register that has performed best on this page

CARD 1

COVER The covered number

FRAMING	Collage of this week's units with the SOLD tags covered — a card, a hand, or a blur over each.
CAMERA MOVE	Flat-lay or grid composition, built in the design tool from photos you already have. If you are photographing fresh, shoot each car front 3/4 at headlight height for consistency with Tuesday.
ACTION	No motion. Four to six units in a grid, tags obscured.
EXPRESSION	Tone: warm and quiet. This is the emotional post of the week — not a sales board. Late light, soft, no hard graphics.
AUDIO	No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.
ON-SCREEN TEXT	“Berapa unit jumpa owner baru minggu ni?” large across the middle. Nothing else.
EDIT NOTE	The covered tag IS the hook — it is the unanswered-question pattern. If the number is visible on card 1, there is no reason to swipe.

CARD 2

REVEAL The number

FRAMING

Same collage, tags now visible.

CAMERA MOVE

Identical layout to card 1 — same crop, same positions. Do not re-shoot or re-arrange.

ACTION

Static.

EXPRESSION

Tone: matter-of-fact pride. No confetti, no 'SOLD OUT!!' — the number speaks for itself.

AUDIO

No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

The count, large. Underneath Dealer partner: [name]. If more than one dealer, credit each.

EDIT NOTE

Keep the layout identical to card 1 so the reveal reads as an uncovering, not a new image.

CARD 3

HUMAN (optional) One real moment

FRAMING

One handover frame — keys, a hand, a boot being loaded. No face without consent.

CAMERA MOVE

CU on the detail, shallow if your lens allows. Shoot at hand height, not looking down — looking down makes it feel surveilled rather than shared.

ACTION

A real moment from the week. If you did not capture one, skip this card.

EXPRESSION

Tone: this is the card that does the emotional work. The best-performing post this page ever had was emotional, in Malay, with no car in it. That register is the asset. Skip the card entirely rather than fake it.

AUDIO

No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

No text, or one short line. Let the image sit.

EDIT NOTE

Optional card. A missing card 3 is fine; a staged card 3 is not.

CARD 4

POLL Next week's direction

FRAMING

Plain card, brand colour, three stacked options.

CAMERA MOVE

No camera — built in the design tool. Same canvas size as the other cards so the carousel does not jump.

ACTION

Static graphic.

EXPRESSION

Tone: an invitation, not a survey. Plain type, no clip art.

AUDIO

No audio — photo carousel. Every fact must survive with sound off: price, anggaran, model and dealer credit are all burned into the image, never spoken.

ON-SCREEN TEXT

“Next week korang nak kami pergi tengok apa?” then SUV · SEDAN · MPV . Plus WhatsApp +60 16-879 8757 .

EDIT NOTE

Three options, never more. And act on the winner — if MPV wins and next week has no MPV, the poll was theatre and people notice.

CAPTION — READY TO PASTE

___ unit dari dealer partner kami jumpa owner baru minggu ni

WHY THIS VIDEO, THIS WEEK

- Social proof credited to the dealer keeps the boundary clean while still showing momentum
- The poll seeds next week's plan with real audience input instead of guesswork
- Emotional / human register is this page's best-performing content ever — 1,000 views on 584 followers, with no car in frame

Lines that must land exactly.

- “___ unit dari dealer partner kami jumpa owner baru minggu ni.” — this phrasing, not a paraphrase
- “Kami yang arrange, dealer yang serah kunci.” — the boundary line for this post
- No buyer faces, names or plates without explicit consent
- If nothing sold, say so plainly and run the poll alone. Never invent a number
- The poll winner must actually appear in next week's plan

Everything marked SAY IT YOUR WAY is intent, not wording — Nev paraphrases it in his own mouth. Reading it verbatim is what makes it sound stiff.

Export. Carousel 4:5 or 1:1. Post Sunday evening. Record the poll result in PLAYBOOK.md — it is the input for next Sunday's automated run.

New patterns learned this week

1. NEW Annotated document walkthrough. The auction sheet posted as a still with callout boxes tapped through one at a time — the document itself is the content, no car needed. Example: scrut auto, "Auction Report Guide", TikTok, seen 19 Ogos. How Nev uses it: same treatment, but the dealer's finger points. Banked as a carousel for a future week.
2. Monthly-payment hook (variant of #1 Price shock). Lead with the instalment, not the sticker. Example: "ALPHARD SC BAWAH RM2,000?" / "Monthly RM1,800 sahaja", TikTok. How Nev uses it: anggaran monthly on frame 1, sticker price held to the end — pairs with the Price-reveal-delay twist.
3. NEW Poster-frame stock post. The best stock post in the entire scan was static — price and warranty burned into frame 1, not a walkaround. Example: G-Mart Group, Vellfire 2.5 ZG recond, 18.2K likes. How Nev uses it: Tuesday's card 1 built as a poster. Already applied this week.

Steal / adapt

G-Mart Group	Stock as a poster: price + warranty burned into frame 1	18.2K likes — highest in the scan	Selasa card 1 becomes a poster, not a photo
Nasrom Premium	Auction report explainer — two people, one document	1,468 likes	Isnin — but the dealer holds the sheet, never us
scrut auto	Annotated auction sheet with tap-through callouts	TikTok, seen 19 Ogos 2026	Carousel version of Isnin, banked for a future week
